

Application For

Leadership Klamath 2008-2009

Leadership Klamath is a program comprised of 10 day-long sessions, held on the third Thursday of each month from September through June. Each session focuses on a specific aspect of life in Klamath County, and is facilitated by community leaders who serve as instructors. The program is designed to bring present and future leaders together in a unique format that insures that our future leaders are well-informed about the history and issues affecting our community.
